PROPOSED DRAFT

SUBJECT: Policy and Procedures Governing the Dissemination of CIA
Intelligence and Information to [REDACTED] 25X1X7

I. CIA Intelligence

A. Policy

1. It is the aim of CIA in disseminating intelligence to the

25X1X7 [REDACTED] to obtain the maximum of [REDACTED] intelligence in 25X1X7

25X1X7 exchange and to secure [REDACTED] comments on as many CIA documents as possible. CIA intelligence will, therefore, be withheld from the 25X1X7 [REDACTED] only when dissemination would be demonstrably prejudicial to US security interests or would damage good relations between the two countries.

2. All dissemination of CIA intelligence to [REDACTED] must 25X1X7 be approved by the DCI unless otherwise specified.

B. Responsibilities

1. The primary responsibility in the matter of dissemination of 25X1X7 CIA intelligence to [REDACTED] shall reside in the Office of Reports and Estimates, and OSI as appropriate; secondary responsibility in the Inspection and Security Staff.

a. I&SS shall determine in the case of each document that:

(1) it would not, in the opinion of OO, SO, or any other collection agency that might have contributed, disclose sensitive sources of information;

(2) dissemination will not conflict with the policies of any agency of the government that might be concerned.

b. ORE and OSI shall determine in the case of each document that:

(1) the nature of the intelligence is not such that the 25X1X7 [REDACTED] could infer from it, correctly or incorrectly, the formation of US foreign policy not otherwise disclosed to it;

(2) it does not contain any statements detrimental to the 25X1X7 [REDACTED] which, if read by responsible [REDACTED] 25X1X7 officials, might damage relations between the two countries
25X1X7 or between [REDACTED] and US intelligence agencies;

(3) it does not contain significant data acquired under agreement, either written or implicit, barring disclosure to
25X1X7 [REDACTED]

(4) dissents entered by the IAC agencies are not of such 25X1X7 a nature that [REDACTED] would gain an impression of excessive interagency friction;

(5) the quality of the document was not such as to reflect discredit on CIA;

(6) the subject treated was not such that it could be
25X1X7 of no use to [REDACTED]

(7) All publications in the ORE, SR, and IM series shall be considered for exchange; other items shall not be disseminated unless there are particularly strong reasons for doing so.
